Vancouver (February 7, 2008) – Do you think you have what it takes? The Art Institute of Vancouver is calling all aspiring high school student film makers, game developers and animation artists to submit their entries in one of this year's ARTimation competitions.

On March 1, 2008, The Art Institute of Vancouver will be hosting ARTimation, a media arts festival featuring the areas of gaming, animation, visual effects, film, and recording arts in an innovative and interactive learning environment. The event will be held at the Rocky Mountaineer Station in Vancouver from 11am to 11pm and will include a wide range of stimulating activities such as game play, film screenings, production workshops, hands-on drawing tutorials, industry-insider information sessions, and high-profile keynote speakers.
